

What Not to Do with Equipment

BLAIR ATHOL COAL

This is a picture taken at an Australian open cut mine by a friend of mine. The white "thing" is a Toyota Landcruiser Troop Carrier, a rather large 4x4. I like to think of this picture as a big "f--- you" to the arrogant 4x4 tossers out there who think they are the biggest and baddest thing around. Not so tough when squashed under the feet of a mining truck, are you? h0 h0 h0. The mining truck didn't even pause / shudder / do anything as it ran over the Troopie.
