Welcome to 6th Annual Asia Mining Partnering Forum 2012 which is to be convened on May 24th & 25th, 2012 in Beijing, China. Organized by China Decision Makers Consultancy, 6th Annual Asia Mining Partnering Forum 2012 (AMPF 2012) is themed on “Connecting Chinese Investors with Global Miners”, and committed to sharing with you the latest policies, development and trends of the global and China’s mining industry, and providing an effective and profitable platform to grasp the growth opportunities and to explore funding and strategic partnerships.

According to the Ministry of Commerce, PRC, China now ranks as the fifth largest global investor in foreign direct investment (FDI) since 2010 and 90% of the foreign investment focuses on mining, energy, finance and manufacturing industry. Now China has become the primary source of funding for overseas mineral resources to fuel its growth target in the 12th five year plan. Chinese government encourages not only the SOEs(State-Owned Enterprises) but also the private ventures to go out and invest in overseas mineral resources. Therefore, Chinese mining corporations and strategic investors are keeping their eyes open for many more development and profit opportunities in overseas mineral resources.

Over the past five years, Asia Mining Forum series have attracted more than 1,300 delegates from 300 companies and 25 countries, providing an effective and profitable platform for global mining & metals insiders and Chinese mining investors to establish contacts, exchange ideas and forge partnerships. The forum series have been well received and acclaimed by global participants.

The 6th Annual Asia Mining Partnering Forum 2012, with the continuous support from MLR (Ministry of Land and Resources of the People’s Republic of China),China Mining Association, The China International Mining Group, China Mining Club, ASEAN Federation of Mining Associations, The Mining Advisory Council for Russia, Mongolian National Mining Association and other relevant authoritative organizations, will draw your attention to
